Sensory Menu

L.S. Lowry: The Theatre of Life.

This sensory menu is designed to support your visit to MK Gallery's current exhibition 'L.S. Lowry: The Theatre of Life'. It provides a short sensory synopsis of the exhibition to help you have the best experience in our spaces.

The temperature can vary as you move through the Gallery so you may want to bring a jumper.

You can also collect ear defenders and Sensory Scout Kits from the gallery entrance if you wish.

Gallery 1

- The walls in this room are painted dark blue and grey
- There are artworks hung on the walls

Gallery 2

- The walls in this room are painted grey
- There are artworks hung on the walls

Gallery 3 (Reading Room)

- This room is small and the walls are painted grey
- There are glass doors that let in natural lighting
- The floor is different to the other Galleries. It is wooden
- There is a timeline of L.S. Lowry's Life for you to read on the wall
- There are books to look at if you would like to
- There are comfy beanbags and small stools to sit on if you would like to

Gallery 4

- This room is painted grey
- There are artworks hung on the walls

Gallery 5

- This room is painted grey and bright yellow
- There are artworks hung on the walls

Gallery 6

- This room is painted grey and bright red
- There are artworks hung on the walls
- There are items in glass cases you can look at
- There are glass doors letting in natural light, and you can see through to the MK Gallery Cafe

Additions

- If you need any additional assistance with your visit, please ask someone at the front desk who will be happy to help

- There are benches to sit down on throughout the galleries. You are also welcome to take a portable seat into the galleries with you- they are available from our foyer

- Please pay close attention to signage in the galleries- some work cannot be photographed. Artworks which may be photographed are clearly labelled

- You might also enjoy taking our free to use Sensory Tour Kit into the galleries with you, to help you explore select artworks! It has been designed and made by Learners from MK SNAP, Residents from Camphill MK Communities and students from St Paul's Catholic School VI Department, together with artists Collar & Cuffs Co. and Robin Clements. It is available from our front desk