I am going to a Relaxed Cinema Screening at MK Gallery.

MK Gallery

On Sunday, I am going to a Relaxed Cinema Screening at MK Gallery.

This is MK Gallery.

The film I am going to see starts at 10:30am.

When I arrive, I will need to go to the front desk to buy my ticket, unless I have bought one online already.

I might have to wait in a queue, but it won't take long.

If I would like to, I can then go to the MK Gallery Cafe to buy a drink or snack to take into the cinema.

To get to the cinema, I will need to go to the second floor of MK Gallery.

I can get there using the stairs, or the lift.

When I get to the cinema, a friendly MK Gallery volunteer will scan my ticket.

After this, I can sit in any empty seat in the cinema.

I will be watching a film called Forgotten Island.

In this film, while celebrating their last night together, Jo and Raissa stumble upon a mysterious portal that transports them to the fantastical island of Nakali.

If I want to, I can watch a trailer for this film before I watch it in the cinema, to find out more about it.

If I need the toilet during the film, I will need to leave the cinema, turn left and go down the corridor to find them.

If I need to use the Changing Places facility, I will need to go back to the ground floor of MK Gallery.

A member of staff at the front desk can show me the way.

At the end of the film, everyone will leave the cinema.
